scriptions and they are sending letters to the different places where there are colonies of Chinese to ask their aid in this humanitarian work.

We enclose you a letter addressed to the Chinese in your city and shall esteem it a great favor if you will call a meeting of the Chinese residents, present them this letter and receive subscriptions from them and telegraph the same to the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, Shanghai. The Chinese members of the committee are anxious that all subscriptions from their own countrymen who are abroad shall be received and forwarded by some responsible foreigner. Thanking you in anticipation, we are, dear sir, yours faithfully,
